

The Massachusetts Association of School Superintendents (M.A.S.S.)
Women's Educational Leadership Network (WELN) Spring Event

Building AllyShips Among Women Leaders

Thursday March 31st 1-3 PM (Virtual)
Space is Limited!

Featuring Presentations on:

- Gender and Racial Disparities Among Women Leaders: Creating Empowering Opportunities and Removing Self-Imposed Barriers

Cheryl Watson-Harris, Superintendent of the DeKalb County School District, Stone Mountain Georgia, former Deputy Chancellor, New Your City Schools and Network Superintendent, Boston Public Schools

- The Journeys of Two Women Leaders of Color in their First Superintendent Position: Who Gave Them a Seat at the Table and Who Listened to Their Voices

Dr. Almi Abeyta, Superintendent, Chelsea Public Schools
Dr. Priya Tahiliani, Superintendent, Everett Public Schools

- Group Discussions- Strategies for Building Ally Ships

- Closing Remarks - Why This is the Time for Action

Regina Robinson, Deputy Director, Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Education

Participants will receive copies of the Rennie Center Study- The Power Gap in Massachusetts K-12 Education Examining Gender and Racial Disparities Among Leadership

REGISTER HERE

