

IDEAS Educator Conference

“Anti-Racist Education in an Age of Resistance”

Saturday, April 27, 2024

8:00 am - 3:30 pm

Bentley University, Waltham, MA

Keynote Speaker

Tim Wise

Educator, Author of nine books, including White Like Me: Reflections on Race from a Privileged Son and Dispatches from the Race War

Schools and districts across Massachusetts are striving to deepen their work in anti-racism, diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging, often while facing backlash and resistance.

The IDEAS Educator Conference is a powerful opportunity to learn new strategies, share experiences, and engage with other courageous educators who are committed to social justice and eradicating racism and other forms of prejudice from our schools and communities.

Registration opens in December 2023.

$225 Early Registration for IDEAS Member Districts (until January 15)

$250 General Registration

- Keynote address by Tim Wise
- Workshops facilitated by IDEAS Instructors
- Student Panel
- Networking opportunities
- Breakfast and lunch
- Free parking

www.massupt.org/IDEAS

IDEAS is a program of the Massachusetts Association of School Superintendents.